Planning Briefing

Darwin City Council will have a planning briefing at the 1st Ordinary Council Meeting tomorrow night (Tuesday 11 August 2009) which details the Amendment to the NT Planning Scheme. The presentation will inform council of the impact these changes will have on the future development of Darwin.

Mr Richard Hancock, Chief Executive Officer of Department of Planning and Infrastructure (DPI), will be in attendance from 5.15 p.m. to brief the Council on NT Planning Scheme Amendment – Francis Bay and to update Council on the proposed upgrades of the Old Hospital Site and Flagstaff Park.

Lord Mayor Graeme Sawyer is looking forward to the briefing “These are all significant developments for the City of Darwin and Council is keen to be apart of the process” he said.

Elected Members of Darwin City Council will be available for interview during the break.
