Seniors Tour

As a part of Seniors Month the Darwin City Council are hosting a bus tour. The tour starts 1030am at the Civic Centre with a look at the Beagle Bells and finishes up with a 1230 Lunch with the Lord Mayor at Tracey Village Social Club. In between they will check out the central business district, the old hospital site, Mindil Beach, East Point, Woolner Road Upgrade, the Lyons development and other sites of interest.

Lord Mayor Graeme Sawyer is interested to hear the comments on how Darwin has changed "There has been a lot of development around the town in the past year and many projects underway today, I am interested to hear what our seniors have to say... I am hoping for some good advice" he said

There has been many events on for Seniors month this year, all well attended and very successful.
