The return of The BIG GIG Celebrate the end of National Youth Week

Darwin City Council's Youth Advisory Group (YAG) are proud to present "The BIG GIG" – a special celebration to mark the end of National Youth Week 2009.

"The BIG GIG" will be the Darwin debut of Adelaide band "Fire! Santa Rosa, Fire!", named as one of the hot six bands to watch in Rip It Up magazine, with their hit "War Coward". Also hitting the stage will be awesome local acts "Crassic Park", "The Aviators" and singer songwriter Josefina Huq.

As well as the best in live, local and original music, "The BIG GIG" will have a "Chill Out Space" with heaps of interactive activities for young people, including recycled jewellery workshops, Cupcake Art of the Top End and 'Zine making. Outside, in Civic Park there'll be cheap food and drink, jumping castles and volleyball.

"The BIG GIG" will be held at Brown's Mart and Civic Park on Saturday 04 April from 2pm to 8pm and entry is free. "The BIG GIG" is a drug and alcohol free event.

"The BIG GIG" has been organised by young people for young people, with the support of Darwin City Council, Corrugated Iron Youth Arts, Music NT, the Northern Territory Government and beyondblue.
