PURPOSE

To establish a policy under the new Local Government Act in relation to whether members need to be in attendance personally or by way of audio or audiovisual conferencing system.

The Council has had a policy that Members must attend in person.

DETAIL

That pursuant to Section 61(4) of the Local Government Act 2008, the Council hereby determines that the Council does not authorise attendance at meetings by means of audio or audiovisual conferencing systems and members must physically attend meetings in order to be recorded as present at a meeting.
